WHEREAS, On May 12, 1960, Nina Davis began her employment with State Government as Switchboard Operator at the State Capitol; and,

WHEREAS, At the time Nina began her employment there were twenty-seven lines coming into the State Capitol, and each call had to be placed through the operator; and,

WHEREAS, Since that time many changes have occurred, including a change to direct dial, but nevertheless her job remained very confining as Nina was for some time the only full-time telephone operator in the Capitol Complex; and,

WHEREAS, Nina is also responsible for handling directory assistance calls and telegrams, sometimes as many as one-hundred-fifty in one day; and,

WHEREAS, Nina has handled her job with the utmost of dedication and courtesy and has won many friends for State Government through her pleasant voice and warm personality; and,

WHEREAS, Friday, December 12, 1975, marks the retirement of Nina Davis, after having so ably served the State of South Dakota for fifteen years; and,

WHEREAS, We will all certainly miss hearing Nina's pleasant "State Capitol" at the other end of the telephone line; and,

WHEREAS, The retirement of Nina is worthy of public recognition in the State of South Dakota, and I, as Governor, want to express appreciation to Nina on behalf of the employees of State Government and the citizens of South Dakota for the splendid service she has rendered, and to wish her much happiness as she begins her retirement:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Friday, December 12, 1975, as in South Dakota, and do urge her many friends to join with her in celebration on this day.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 12th day of December, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Five
